1. RECORDAL

- 1.1. This is a tripartite social housing Consolidated Capital Grant Agreement between the Social Housing Regulatory Authority (the "SHRA"), the Name of Provincial Department of Human Settlements (the "Province") and Name of SHI (the "Grant Recipient").
- 1.2. The Social Housing Act and its Regulations and the National Housing Code 2000 as amended, provides the legal framework for Social Housing in South Africa.
- 1.3. The Social Housing Act allows for the undertaking of approved Social Housing Projects with the benefit of public money through Social Housing Investment Programmes for the development of rental housing options for low to medium income households to be provided by Social Housing Institutions in designated Restructuring Zones.
- 1.4. The National Housing Code provides for the allocation of institutional subsidy to qualifying SHI's and to qualifying beneficiaries in the form of social housing grants.
- 1.5. Social Housing Investment Programmes are geared towards the development of rental and co-operative housing options for low to medium income households to be provided by Social Housing Institutions in designated Restructuring Zones.
- 1.6. The National Treasury and National Department of Human Settlement in reprioritising the social housing strategic funding have consolidated the Restructuring Capital Grant ("RCG") managed and administered by the SHRA with the Provincial institutional subsidy ("institutional subsidy") into one social housing Consolidated Capital Grant under the administration of the SHRA.
- 1.7. In certain circumstances the institutional subsidy generally may attract geotechnical allowances, Southern Cape Coastal Condensation Allowance ("SCCCA") and other allowances which are calculated according to site specific conditions and the Provinces and will continue to be approved by the Province.
- 1.8. In terms of the Social Housing Act, the Province is mandated to monitor social housing projects to ascertain that relevant prescripts, norms and standards are being complied with and authorise drawdown requests.
- 1.9. The Social Housing Institution, hereinafter, the "Grant Recipient", has lodged an Application for a Social Housing Consolidated Capital Grant for the Social Housing Project, and such Application has been approved by the Social Housing Regulatory Authority and the Province to the total value as detailed in the Contract Data Sheet.
- 1.10. The Parties therefore, wish to enter into this Agreement in order to regulate and monitor the utilisation of the Consolidated Capital Grant and the execution of the Project and generally, to govern their relationship for the duration of this Agreement.

- 6.5.3. The Grant Recipient shall be entitled to submit a new Application for the Consolidated Capital Grant.

7. DISBURSEMENT OF THE CONSOLIDATED CAPITAL GRANT

7.1. Calculation of Quantum

- 7.1.1. It is recorded that the quantum of the Consolidated Capital Grant has been calculated by the SHRA based on the number of Units and on the apportionment of Units between Primary Beneficiaries and Secondary Beneficiaries that the Grant Recipient has undertaken to provide in respect of the Project for the purposes of Social Housing.
- 7.1.2. The total Consolidated Capital Grant approved and allocated to the project will be held by the SHRA in a specific ring-fenced interest-bearing account, where the SHRA will monitor spending and account for any unspent funds and interest.
- 7.1.3. The use of any accrued interest in the account will be at the sole discretion of the SHRA. In special instances, the SHRA may entertain application from the Grant Recipients for the use of the accrued interest for project enhancements or initiatives that may be deemed to be of a capital nature that adds value to the Project.
- 7.1.4. The Grant Recipient shall open and operate a Project Operational Bank Account with a registered financial institution within the Republic of South Africa.
- 7.1.5. The Consolidated Capital Grant shall be disbursed to the Grant Recipient by the SHRA in the following manner: -

- 7.1.5.1. The Grant Recipient will submit a written request for drawdown of funds based on its actual progress and milestone achievement on the development phase of the project to the Portfolio Manager for assessment. The Portfolio Manager will assess the written request for draw down in consultation with the Province and will within five (5) Business Days recommend for a payment authorisation by the Executive Manager responsible for Project Development and Funding.
- 7.1.5.2. The written request for drawdown shall have proof that the relevant milestone has been achieved and payment of the Consolidated Capital Grant shall only be made subject to the following conditions:
 - 7.1.5.2.1. Submission of an acceptable Invoice to the SHRA to an email address to be nominated by the SHRA, which Invoice shall be in the format as prescribed by the SHRA; and
 - 7.1.5.2.2. Certificate of Completion of Work done and prepared by the principal agent/project manager, Valuation Certificate issued and signed and dated as per the Performance Agreement, which shall specifically warrant that the works have been completed to the norms and standards of the NHBRC.
- 7.1.5.3. The SHRA commits to endeavour to pay the requested drawdown funds into the Project Bank Account of the Grant Recipient within thirty (30) Business Days of receipt of the drawdown request to the Portfolio Manager.
- 7.1.5.4. The availability of the Consolidated Capital Grant shall be limited according to the following milestones: -
 - 7.1.5.4.1. maximum of 20% on fulfilment by the Grant Recipient of all the Conditions Precedent;
 - 7.1.5.4.2. a further maximum of 20%, subject to fulfilment by the Grant Recipient of all the requirements necessary for Financial Closure;
 - 7.1.5.4.3. up to a further 50% upon approval by the SHRA of the Draft Tenant Management Plan and Property Maintenance/ Management Plan (per annexure "C5") as well as material and documentations listed/described per annexures C7, C8, C9, C10, C11, and C12, which the Grant Recipient is required to submit to the Portfolio Manager (Executive Manager: Project Development and Funding) together with such further documents as the SHRA may request and subject further to the Project having progressed to the satisfaction of the SHRA and the Province, and should the SHRA or the Province not be satisfied, then subject to such conditions as the SHRA or the Province may reasonably impose; Payments shall be up to a maximum of 90% of Contract Value (cumulatively) but against annual value substantiated by valuations certificates of measured value on site and Professional fee invoices not exceeding 10%; and 7.1.5.4.4. up to a further final 10% on tenanting.

7.1.5.5. The payment of the final 10% of the Capital Grant shall be subject to confirmation in writing to the SHRA that: -

7.1.5.5.1. Units have been occupied in accordance with the Act and generally in accordance with the percentage allocation of Units in the Project Financial Model (the approved Quick Scan C) to Primary Beneficiaries and Secondary Beneficiaries, which will be evidenced by the submission of the Tenant Audit Schedule, to be annexed as Annexure "C4"; and

7.1.5.5.2. the development has been completed, including tenanting of the units to the satisfaction of the Grant Recipient, Consultants, Appropriate Authorities and the SHRA which will be evidenced by the submission certificates of compliance, Final Completion Certificate of the Works as a Whole and unqualified Municipal occupation certificates in respect of all the Units, together with final proven costs for the completed project.

7.1.5.6. Should the SHRA so decide, the 10% may be paid out proportionately as occupation of the Units takes place up to a maximum of 5% of the grant for 100% occupation by primary beneficiaries and the remaining 5% of the grant shall be paid out on compliance with Clause 7.1.5.5.2 above.

7.1.5.7. Should the SHRA, in its discretion, determine that a payment and/or any other condition of this Agreement have not been met or that any obligation contained within this Agreement have not been fulfilled by the Grant Recipient and/or any of the Consultants and/or Contractors appointed by the Grant Recipient or Developer or only partially met or fulfilled, it shall be entitled to withhold all or a portion of the Consolidated Capital Grant, pending fulfilment of the relevant condition(s) and obligations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grant Recipient shall continue to perform its obligations in terms of this Agreement and shall not be entitled to delay performance or fail to perform as a result of the SHRA exercising its discretion. The SHRA is also within its rights to withhold a portion of Project payments that are legitimate or otherwise if any of contract conditions are not met to its satisfaction, after having consulted with the Grant Recipient.

7.1.5.8. The SHRA shall at all material times ensure that the necessary funding to release for any of the Drawdowns provided for above has been secured from the Department of Human Settlement and is available for drawdown. Should it transpire that there are any challenges with the flow of funds from the Department of Human Settlements the SHRA will immediately inform the Grant Recipient and Developer.

7.1.5.9. In the event that the SHRA is unable to make payment of the Consolidated Capital Grant or any portion thereof, as a result of the National Department of Human Settlements for any reason whatsoever not releasing the required funds, cancelling and/or delaying such release, the Grant Recipient shall not have any claim against the SHRA as a result nor the SHRA against the Grant Recipient.

7.2. Bank Account

7.2.1. The Grant Recipient shall open a separate bank account to be known as the Project Bank Account into which it receives the Consolidated Capital Grant from the SHRA and from which payments may be made to creditors for the purposes of meeting proven Project expenses in accordance with the Project Budget and as authorised by the SHRA.

7.2.2. The Grant Recipient shall further maintain a separate ledger account for the Project and provide the SHRA with true copies of such ledger account upon request.

7.3. Utilisation of the Capital Grant

7.3.1. The Grant Recipient shall utilise the Consolidated Capital Grant solely for the purposes of implementing the Project, and for no other purpose whatsoever, and only in accordance with the Project Budget.

7.3.2. All costs incidental to the implementation of the Project, but not provided for in the Project Budget, shall be borne by the Grant Recipient. Such costs and expenses include, but are not limited to, rates, taxes, assessments and/or any other expenses relating to the Land as well as the costs of evicting any person/s who unlawfully occupy the Land and/or any Units.

7.3.3. Should there be any unspent portion of the Capital Grant at the Date of Completion, such funds shall be retained by the SHRA, with accrued interest if any (subject to clause 7.1.1 and 7.1.2 in relation to the interest) or returned to the SHRA by the Grant Recipient.

- 7.3.4. The consolidated capital grant quantum is capped within the Consolidated Capital Grant as indicated in the Contract Data Sheet and there will be no further funds.
- 7.3.5. If the SHRA discovers that the Grant Recipient was paid a drawdown per clause 7.1.5.4 above for an expenditure that is not connected to this Project, the SHRA reserves the right to claim back that amount from the Grant Recipient with interest or offset it from any future drawdown(s) by the Grant Recipient.

8. DEVELOPMENT PHASE

8.1. Scope of Development

- 8.1.1. The Grant Recipient undertakes to implement and complete the Development in accordance with the approvals from the various Appropriate Authorities subject to the Project Budget, Development Schedule, Applicable Legislation, the provisions of this Agreement and the Development Agreement.

8.2. Commencement and completion of Development

- 8.2.1. The Grant Recipient shall commence the Development immediately in line with the approved Development Schedule or such amended Development schedule agreed to by the SHRA and shall attain the Date of Completion within the period stipulated in the Development Schedule but shall not commence Construction prior to Financial Closure.
- 8.2.2. However, if the Grant Recipient commence Construction of the Development prior to Financial Closure, it shall do so at its own risk and at its own cost unless the SHRA agrees in writing to reimburse any moneys spent by the Grant Recipient prior to the Financial Closure.
- 8.2.3. Should the Grant Recipient believe that it will not be in a position to attain the Date of Completion within the period stipulated in the Development Schedule, or such amended Development schedule agreed to by the SHRA, the Grant Recipient shall submit a written request to the SHRA for an extension of the Date of Completion, motivating the reasons for such extension, and such request must be received by the SHRA not later than 90 (ninety) Business days prior to the agreed Date of Completion. The SHRA shall respond to the recipient within 14 (fourteen) Business days from date of receipt of the request.
- 8.2.4. An extension granted by the SHRA in terms of clause 8.2.3 shall not be unreasonably withheld and shall be on such further terms and conditions as the SHRA may reasonably impose. In the absence of further terms and conditions, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall apply. By granting any extension, the SHRA shall not be deemed to have waived any rights or limit any future existing rights as set out in this Agreement.
- 8.2.5. The SHRA's Authorised Representative shall at all reasonable times, and on not less than 24 hours' prior written notice to the Grant Recipient, be given such access to the Development and/or the Project and/or any Component thereof and any documentation and/or information in the possession of the Grant Recipient.

8.3. Business Plan and Development Schedule

- 8.3.1. The Grant Recipient undertakes that it will exercise due effort and diligence to complete every stage of the Development in accordance with the Business Plan and Development Schedule or such amended Development schedule agreed to by the SHRA.
- 8.3.2. The SHRA and the Province shall be entitled to request the Grant Recipient to amend the Development Schedule from time to time in order to achieve the objectives of the Social Housing Investment Programme, provided that such amendments are reasonable and achievable in the circumstances.
- 8.3.3. The Grant Recipient shall not deviate from the Business Plan, Development Schedule and/or Project Budget without the prior written consent of the SHRA.

8.4. Delivery of Units

- 8.4.1. The Grant Recipient shall deliver the number of units as undertaken in the Business Plan, the Project Financial Model, and the Contract Data Sheet.
- 8.4.2. All Units shall be completed in accordance with the design and Specifications agreed between the Grant Recipient, the SHRA and the Province in accordance with the requirements of the Appropriate Authorities.
- 8.4.3. The Grant Recipient shall allocate the units only to qualifying beneficiaries, as provided in 8.4.4 below.
- 8.4.4. The Grant Recipient undertakes that it will not allocate units for occupation by any person who does not qualify as a Primary Beneficiary or a Secondary Beneficiary.
- 8.4.5. The Grant Recipient shall not be entitled in any circumstances to sell, sub-let, encumber or dispose of the units other than in accordance with this Agreement and the Applicable Legislation, nor shall it be entitled to utilise any units, or any part of the Land, for any purpose other than for the purpose for which the Consolidated Capital Grant was provided.

8.5. Close out of the Development phase

- 8.5.1. Upon close out of the Development phase, the following documents must be submitted as proof to the SHRA:
 - 8.5.1.1. A completion certificate;
 - 8.5.1.2. Final account detailing the expenditure of the CCG;
 - 8.5.1.3. The occupation certificates.,

- 8.5.1.4. Tenant schedule detailing that the units have been fully tenanted;
and
- 8.5.1.5. The close out report.

9. MANAGEMENT PHASE

9.1. Introduction

- 9.1.1. The management phase must be initiated 180 business days prior to the completion of the first completed units.
- 9.1.2. The grant recipients shall be allowed 90 Business Days' grace period to tenant the completed units (upon practical completion).
- 9.1.3. The Grant Recipient shall be obliged to comply with various obligations relating to reporting, record keeping and monitoring as provided for in the SH Act and Regulations.

9.2. Pre-occupation requirements

- 9.2.1. Prior to permitting the occupation of any Units, the Grant Recipient shall be required to provide to the SHRA and the Province, for their approval, the following documents: -
 - 9.2.1.1. Practical completion certificates, occupation certificates and clearance certificates from the Appropriate Authorities;
 - 9.2.1.2. Compliance and/or works completion certificates issued by all the Consultants;
 - 9.2.1.3. Proof of insurance in respect of the Project and all components of the Project;

- 11.3.3.6. all quality reports by Consultants, as contemplated in Annexure "D6";
- 11.3.3.7. any information or documentation which the SHRA may request, as contemplated in Annexure "D7".
- 11.3.4. The Grant Recipient shall provide the Project Review Consultant with the following:
 - 11.3.4.1. Copies of all Invoices to the Grant Recipient to prove actual expenditure in respect of the Project, as contemplated in Annexure "E1", together with the monthly Project Operational Bank Statements;
 - 11.3.4.2. Tenant audit schedule, as contemplated in Annexure "E2";
 - 11.3.4.3. Copies of any documents and/or records which the SHRA may request, including financial records, maintenance records, supply invoices and similar documentation, which may reasonably be necessary for the SHRA to satisfy itself of the Grant Recipient's compliance with its obligations in terms of Applicable Legislation and this Agreement, as contemplated in Annexure "E3".
- 11.3.5. Where the documents referred to above are not required or are provided by the Grant Recipient on a monthly basis, and/or in respect of any other information requested by the SHRA, the Grant Recipient shall furnish such documents and such information within 5 Business Days of receipt of the relevant request.
- 11.3.6. The Grant Recipient shall keep at its head office originals of all document material to the implementation of the Project and all documents evidencing its expenditure in terms of this Agreement.
- 11.3.7. The Grant Recipient shall ensure that all licences, permits, registrations and approvals required in terms of all Applicable Legislation shall remain valid and in force for the duration of this Agreement.
- 11.3.8. The Grant Recipient shall advise the SHRA immediately of any change in key personnel involved in the implementation of the Project and shall further advise the SHRA as soon as it is reasonably known to the Grant Recipient that any one or more of the objectives of the Project may not be achieved timeously or at all.
- 11.3.9. In addition to any obligations in this Agreement with regard to the keeping of any records, where any communication amongst the Parties is required to be in writing, the Parties shall retain records of such communication for the duration of this Agreement and for 3 (three) years thereafter. Where communication is not in paper form, then Parties, exercising reasonable judgment as to the importance of the information contained in such communication, shall be required to convert such information into paper form and retain it in terms of this clause 11.3.8. above.

11.4. Monitoring and Evaluation

- 11.4.1. The Grant Recipient shall be obliged to monitor and evaluate the progress of the Development and measure such progress against agreed milestones and the Development Schedule.
- 11.4.2. The Grant Recipient shall be obliged to advise the SHRA and the Province in writing within a reasonable period after becoming aware of any problem that has arisen and/or any matter which may negatively affect the Grant Recipient's ability to perform in terms of this Agreement, together with its undertaking to remedy the failure or shortfall and the time period within which it will be remedied.
- 11.4.3. The SHRA and the Province shall be entitled to monitor and evaluate the progress, quality and overall performance of the Project, and the performances of the Grant Recipient, Developer and/Contractor and Consultants, from time to time and in this regard the Grant Recipient and the Developer and/Contractor agree to co-operate with the SHRA and the Province and shall provide the SHRA and the Province upon request with: -
 - 11.4.3.1. Access to the Project on reasonable notice;
 - 11.4.3.2. Meetings with Consultants, Developer and/Contractor/s and any other person that the SHRA and the Province may reasonably wish to meet; and
 - 11.4.3.3. Access to documents, reports and other information on reasonable notice.
- 11.4.4. The SHRA may appoint agents to review the progress and performances in respect of the Project, any acts or omissions by the Grant Recipient any other person who is contracted or engaged by the Grant Recipient.
- 11.4.5. The SHRA, having conducted a review of the progress and/or performance in respect of the Development and Project and/or the individual performances of the Grant Recipient or any other person rendering services to the Development and/or the Project, is of the reasonable view that the progress or performance is unsatisfactory for any reason, the SHRA shall notify the Grant Recipient, setting out the aspects or elements which are unsatisfactory and providing the Grant Recipient with a reasonable opportunity to remedy the failures. If the Grant Recipient does not remedy the failures to the satisfaction of the SHRA and the Province within the time period provided, then the SHRA shall be entitled to exercise its rights in terms of clause 14 below.

11.5. Review Meetings

- 11.5.1. The SHRA, the Province and the Grant Recipient shall conduct review meetings at least once every quarter or at other intervals as reasonably required by the SHRA and the Province.
- 11.5.2. Review meetings shall be conducted by the parties to facilitate the levels of communication between the parties and shall provide a platform from which to evaluate the performance levels of the Grant Recipient in compliance with the project and this agreement.
- 11.5.3. Minutes shall be kept during the review meeting and shall be retained for future reference.
- 11.5.4. The Review meetings shall: -
 - 11.5.4.1. Review the compliance with this agreement;
 - 11.5.4.2. Compare the actual project progress versus the required level of service performed by the Grant Recipient;
 - 11.5.4.3. Determine and agree on corrective actions and objectives required to rectify non-performance or under-performance in the required level of service; and
 - 11.5.4.4. Any other issues that may be pertinent and relevant to all the parties.

12. WARRANTIES

12.1. The Grant Recipient hereby warrants that as at Signature Date and for the duration of the Development Phase and the duration of this Agreement that: -

- 12.1.1. It has all the necessary authority to conclude this Agreement;
- 12.1.2. It will exercise due effort and diligence to ensure that all contracts, sub-contracts, consultancies and other contracts necessary for the successful performance in terms of this Agreement will be executed in accordance with the required authority and will be in accordance with all Applicable Legislation;
- 12.1.3. At the Signature Date, there is no pending or current litigation, arbitration, investigation or administrative proceeding(s) in relation to it and to the best of its knowledge and belief having made all reasonable enquiries, no pending proceedings in relation to any of its shareholders or members as the case may be, which proceeding is likely to have a material adverse effect on its ability to perform in terms of this Agreement;
- 12.1.4. Neither it nor any of its shareholders or members, as the case may be, are subject to any obligation or non-compliance which is likely to have a complete adverse effect on its/their ability to perform in terms of this Agreement;

- 12.1.5. No proceedings or any other steps have been taken, or to the best of its knowledge having made all reasonable enquiries, threatened, for the winding up or liquidation (whether voluntary or involuntary, professional or final), judicial management (whether provisional or final) or deregistration of it, its shareholders or members, as the case may be or for the appointment of a liquidator or similar officer over any of its/their assets;
- 12.1.6. Neither it, nor its shareholders or members as the case may be, is in default in respect of any judgment, order, award, interdict or any other similar ruling of any other court or administrative authority;
- 12.1.7. All information disclosed by it or on behalf of it to the SHRA at any time up to the Signature Date, and in particular during the Application process, is true, complete and accurate in all material respects to the best of its knowledge and it is not aware of any material facts or circumstances not disclosed to the SHRA which would, if disclosed, be likely to have an adverse effect on the SHRA's decision (acting reasonably) to have granted the Capital Grant;
- 12.1.8. Together with its service providers it has all the necessary skills, training and experience to perform its obligations in terms of this Agreement and in accordance with the standards required in terms of this agreement and it has selected and will select personnel, Contractors, sub-contractors and Consultants who similarly have the necessary skills, training and experience to perform obligations in terms of this Agreement in accordance with the standards required by this Agreement. In this regard it has assessed its personnel, Contractors, sub-contractors and Consultants prior conduct, competencies and service records and is satisfied that there is nothing which would prevent such persons from performing effectively in terms of this Agreement and/or which should have been brought to the attention of the SHRA;
- 12.1.9. Its own constitutional documents and records are up to date and true and correct in all respects;
- 12.1.10. It does not have any liabilities (whether actual or contingent) which may impact on its ability to perform in terms of this Agreement;
- 12.1.11. It is not liable, whether contingently or otherwise, for the liabilities of any third party, whether as surety, co-principal debtor, guarantor, indemnitor or otherwise;
- 12.1.12. Its total borrowings do not exceed any limitation on its borrowing powers contained in its constitutional documents nor have any limits been imposed on its borrowings by its bankers and it has not received formal or informal notification from any lenders of funds requiring payment or all or part of any loans, nor has it received from such lenders any notice of default that is still current;

- 12.1.13. It has and/or will institute the necessary financial, monitoring and tracking internal systems necessary to keep records, monitor and evaluate performance and report to the SHRA as required in terms of this Agreement;
- 12.1.14. Any other agreements entered into by the Grant Recipient shall not conflict with any of the provisions of this Agreement and shall take into account its obligations in terms of this Agreement;
- 12.1.15. That between the Signature Date and the Effective Date it will not incur any liability other than in the normal course of business and will not enter any material agreements which may impact upon its ability to perform in terms of this Agreement;
- 12.1.16. It will retain the same corporate structure and will have the same shareholders or members as the case may be for the duration of this Agreement and if there is any change in the corporate structure or the holders of equity or decision makers after the date of the award of the Consolidated Capital Grant, a written approval of such a change shall be promptly sought from the SHRA;
- 12.1.17. It shall at all times comply with the latest applicable / approved Business Plan, Project Budget, Project Financial Model, and all other documents and representations whether as part of the Application or otherwise, which would reasonably have influenced the SHRA to grant the Consolidated Capital Grant and/or to pay any or all of a particular Draw Down;
- 12.1.18. It shall ensure that its procurement processes and practices take cognisance of applicable procurement legislation, regulations and policies, particularly with respect to Broad Based Black Economic Empowerment principles, particularly the Preferential Procurement Regulations 2017;
- 12.1.19. It shall at all times comply with all Applicable Legislation;
- 12.1.20. It has submitted and received in principle approval from the Appropriate Authorities for the Project and from Financiers as provided during the application process, so that at the Effective Date it is in a position to commence and complete the Development and the Project in its entirety subject to Financial Closure, it being recorded that the commencement of any construction prior to Financial Closure shall be at the risk of the Grant Recipient;
- 12.1.21. Shall not directly or indirectly jeopardise or prejudice the State's investment in Social Housing and in this regard shall not offer the Development, the Project, or any element or aspect of it as security for any loan, other than in terms of the Funding Agreements and this Agreement, and shall not be entitled to cede any of its rights in and to the Development and/or the Project to any person or entity, other than the Financiers, and as fully disclosed to the SHRA and the Province, for the duration of this Agreement unless agreed between the Parties;

12.1.22. The representations and warranties given by the Grant Recipient shall be: -

12.1.22.1. Made as at the Signature Date and for the duration of this Agreement as the case may be and remain applicable;

12.1.22.2. A separate warranty and will in no way be limited or restricted by inference of the terms of any other warranty or by any other words in this Agreement; and

12.1.22.3. Deemed to be material and to be a material representation inducing the SHRA to award the Consolidated Capital Grant and enter into this Agreement;

12.1.23. The Grant Recipient indemnifies and agrees to hold the SHRA harmless against all damages, loss, costs, charges and expenses whatsoever incurred by the SHRA, arising directly or indirectly as a consequence of a breach of warranty by the Grant Recipient.

13. DISPOSAL OR TRANSFER OF THE DEVELOPMENT

13.1. For the duration of this Agreement, the Grant Recipient is prohibited from transferring, selling, donating or in any other way disposing ("disposal") of any portion of the Development to a SHI, ODA, any legal entity or to any other person, without the prior written consent of the SHRA, and upon such terms and conditions as the SHRA may reasonably impose.

13.2. Any purported disposal of the Development or any portion of the Development or Project without the SHRA's prior approval shall be void.

13.3. The Grant Recipient shall prior to the registration of any township establishments and/or consolidations and /or any subdivisions of the Land at the Deeds Office, or in the event that the Grant Recipient is not the registered owner of the Land on the date of signature of this Agreement, then simultaneously with the registration of ownership of the Land into the name of the Grant Recipient then the Grant Recipient shall at its cost register a notarial deed of restriction of transfer in favour of the SHRA in terms of which the Grant Recipient is prohibited from transferring, selling, donating or in any way disposing of the Land or any portion thereof without the prior written consent of the SHRA and upon such reasonable terms and conditions as the SHRA may impose. Where the Grant Recipient has entered into a long lease on the property, a similar Notarial Deed of Restriction shall be registered over the property for the duration of the long lease."

13.4. Subject to clause 15 below, on termination of this Agreement, whether as a result of breach by the Grant Recipient or by agreement with the SHRA, the Project may be retained by the Grant Recipient on such terms and conditions as agreed with the SHRA or may be transferred to another Social Housing Institution, another delivery agent or to the SHRA upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed and approved by the SHRA.

13.5. It is expressly agreed that on termination of this Agreement, for whatever reason, the Grant Recipient shall be entitled to realise a return on the Grant Recipient 's Contribution and/or the Debt Funding but shall be expressly prohibited from realising any return from the Consolidated Capital Grant, which shall not be regarded as the property asset of the Grant Recipient for the purposes of valuing the Project in the event of its disposal, or retention by the Grant Recipient or otherwise.

14. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

14.1. Separate, divisible Agreement

14.1.1. This clause is a separate, divisible Agreement from the rest of this Agreement and shall: -

14.1.1.1. Not be or become void, voidable or unenforceable by reason only of any alleged misrepresentation, mistake, duress, undue influence, impossibility (initial or supervening), illegality, immorality, absence of consensus, lack of authority or other cause relating in substance to the rest of the Agreement and not to this clause. The Parties intend that any such issue shall at all times be and remain subject to arbitration in terms of this clause; and 14.1.1.2. Remain in effect even if the Agreement terminates or is cancelled.

14.2. Disputes

14.2.1. For the purposes of this clause 14, the term "dispute" shall be interpreted in its widest sense and shall include any dispute or difference in connection with, pursuant to or in respect of the conclusion, existence or implementation of this Agreement, the interpretation or application of the provisions of this Agreement, the Parties' respective rights and obligations in terms of and arising out of this Agreement or the validity, enforceability, rectification, termination or cancellation, whether in whole or in part, of this Agreement.

14.2.2. Save as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, where a different procedure is specified, any dispute between the Parties arising in connection with this Agreement or its subject matter shall be resolved in accordance with the provisions of this clause 14.

14.2.3. The Parties shall use their best endeavours to resolve any dispute arising in terms of this Agreement, including considering the referral of same to mediation by agreement between the Parties, prior to resorting to the steps as set out below.

14.3. Resolution by Chief Executives

- 14.3.1. A dispute not resolved in terms of clause 14.2.3 may be referred by either Party to the Chief Executive, or such other senior executive, of the Parties who shall attempt to resolve the matter within 5 Business Days of the dispute being so referred to them. If no resolution can be achieved within that period, the dispute or difference must be settled by way of arbitration as provided for below.

14.4. Arbitration

- 14.4.1. Failing resolution of a dispute in terms of clause 14.3 either Party ("Referring Party") shall be entitled to refer a dispute to arbitration in terms of this clause 14.4 by notifying the other Party of its intention to do so ("Arbitration Notice").
- 14.4.2. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the arbitration laws of the Republic of South Africa and, subject to clause 14.4.8, in English.
- 14.4.3. The arbitration proceedings must be conducted on an informal basis, it being the intention that a decision should be reached as expeditiously and inexpensively as possible, after the date of the Arbitration Notice, subject only to the due observance of the principles of justice.
- 14.4.4. In the event that the Parties have failed to agree on an arbitrator within 5 (five) Business Days of the Arbitration Notice, or if an arbitrator agreed upon by the Parties cannot or does not accept an invitation to arbitrate and the Parties fail to agree on an alternative arbitrator within 5 Business Days of the Parties being informed of this, the chairman of the Johannesburg Bar Council shall be asked to nominate an arbitrator on an urgent basis, who must be an advocate with at least 10 (ten) years' experience in practice at the bar, who will be appointed in writing by the SHRA.
- 14.4.5. Within 7 Business Days after appointment of the arbitrator, each Party must submit to the arbitrator a full written statement of its case, in which must be set out the evidence, facts, submissions and expert opinion as such Party deems necessary to support its contentions in regard to the matter(s) in dispute and simultaneously serve a copy thereof on the other Party. The arbitrator may, on good cause being shown, grant the Party an extension of not more than 7 (seven) Business Days to submit such statement of case. If a Party fails to submit a statement of case within such time limits, the arbitrator may proceed to make an award without it.
- 14.4.6. Within 5 (five) Business Days after receipt of the copy of the other Party's statement of case, either Party may submit a further supplementary statement to the arbitrator and must serve a copy thereof on the other Party.
- 14.4.7. If the arbitrator considers that the matter cannot be decided on the papers before it, the arbitrator may call for other evidence or for witnesses to testify at a place determined by the arbitrator. Witnesses must testify in the presence of both Parties, who may question such witnesses. The arbitrator may appoint a commissioner to take evidence of any person within or outside South Africa and forward it to the arbitrator as if it were a commissioner appointed by the court.

14.4.8. Subject to this clause 14.4.8, the arbitrator shall have discretion and all powers allowed by law to ensure the just, expeditious, economical and final determination of the dispute, including the matter of costs, and without derogating from the generality of the foregoing, shall also have the power: -

14.4.8.1. Subject to clause 14.4.2 to determine the official language in which the proceedings shall be conducted and to order any Party to cover the cost of an interpreter;

14.4.8.2. To determine the time and venue of the hearing, and the hours during which it will take place, it being recorded that the arbitration shall take place in the Province in which the SHRA's head office is located;

14.4.8.3. To strike out or dismiss a claim or defence on grounds of failure by a Party to comply timeously with any ruling or interim award by the arbitrator, or on grounds of delaying conduct by a Party which is likely to cause substantial prejudice to the other Party;

14.4.8.4. To proceed with the arbitration in the absence of or without hearing a Party who is in default or fails to appear or to comply with any ruling or interim award of the arbitrator;

14.4.8.5. To make any ruling or give any direction necessary or advisable for the just, expeditious, economical and final determination of all disputed matters raised in the statements of case, including the matter of costs;

14.4.8.6. To determine the validity of this Agreement and order its rectification;

14.4.8.7. To permit the amendment of a Party's statement of case and require a Party to amend its statement of case so that it is not evasive and, on application of a Party, to strike out from the other Party's statement averments which are vague, scandalous, vexatious or irrelevant;

14.4.8.8. To make rulings or give interim awards on matters of onus, admissibility of evidence and procedure, including ones of an interlocutory or interim nature, and rulings or interim awards relating to costs and the implementation of interim or final awards;

- 14.4.8.9. To decide matters submitted for arbitration on principles based on what is equitable in the circumstances in his/her opinion;
- 14.4.8.10. To make such findings of fact and law as may be required for purposes of the proceedings and the award, including an order as to costs, and including an award whereby a Party is restrained from any conduct, either on an interim or final basis;
- 14.4.8.11. In determining the procedure for the arbitration, and after hearing the Parties, to direct: -
 - 14.4.8.11.1. That the dispute must be determined summarily at an informal hearing attended by both Parties;
 - 14.4.8.11.2. The summary trial of an issue to decide whether any issue or point has no reasonable prospect of success and should be dismissed or struck out, or as to whether an interim award should be made for a sum indisputably due (whether on account of a debt or damages or on any other basis);
 - 14.4.8.11.3. That a Party should furnish more particulars or details on any issue;
 - 14.4.8.11.4. That a Party must produce or make available for inspection to the other Party and to the arbitrator any document, property or thing under the control of the first Party;
 - 14.4.8.11.5. That there shall be one or more inspections in loco;
 - 14.4.8.11.6. That there should be discovery on oath or otherwise of documents and recordings (subject to valid legal objection), either in regard to all relevant matters or in regard to issues determined by the arbitrator;
 - 14.4.8.11.7. That Parties must provide each other with a list of names of witnesses to be called, with a summary of their evidence and that, save with the leave of the arbitrator, no witness shall be called in respect of whom such name and summary has not been provided; and
 - 14.4.8.11.8. That the hearing should proceed on documents (including written submissions), only, without the presentation of other evidence.
- 14.4.9. The arbitrator must at all times have regard to the intention of the Parties underlying this Agreement and must resolve the dispute in a summary manner. The Parties must in any event procure that the arbitrator shall do everything in his/her power to make an award within 1 (one) Month after he/she was appointed, or as soon as possible thereafter.

14.4.10. Any award made by the arbitrator: -

14.4.10.1. Shall be final and binding on the Parties;

14.4.10.2. Shall be carried into effect forthwith by the Parties;

14.4.10.3. May be made an order of court by a Party only if the other Party fails to heed the terms of the award; and 14.4.10.4. May include an order directing the unsuccessful Party to pay the costs of the arbitrator and the expenditure incurred by the successful Party.

14.4.11. This clause 14.4 constitutes each Party's irrevocable consent to arbitration proceedings and neither Party shall be entitled to withdraw from such proceedings or to claim that it is not bound by this clause 14.4.

14.5. Application to Court for Urgent Interim Relief

14.5.1. Nothing contained in this clause 14 shall prohibit a Party from approaching any court of competent jurisdiction for urgent interim relief pending determination of the dispute by arbitration.

15. BREACH

15.1. In the event that the Grant Recipient commits a breach of this Agreement or any of its clause(s), then the SHRA shall be entitled, in addition to and without prejudice to any other right it may have in law and/or in terms of this Agreement, to enforce specific performance in terms of this Agreement, or to cancel this Agreement forthwith on notice to the Grant Recipient. If the SHRA cancels this Agreement: -

15.1.1. The SHRA shall be entitled to a refund of the Consolidated Capital Grant or the value of the of the social housing portion of the project at the date of breach together with interest calculated at the interest rate stipulated in clause 2.1.42 from date of payment of the Consolidated Capital Grant to the Grant Recipient to date of repayment by Grant Recipient to the SHRA; or

- 15.2.13. Breaching any provision of any Funding Agreement, which breach will result in the Financiers calling up all or a portion of their loans, attaching any assets of the Grant Recipient and/or in any way jeopardising the viability of the Project.

15.3. The SHRA's further rights on Termination

15.3.1. In event of Termination of this Agreement in terms of this clause 15, the SHRA may immediately appoint auditors to check and verify all relevant books, records and other data of the Grant Recipient and/or the Developer, who undertake to give their full co-operation to the SHRA in this regard and to make all such information available to the SHRA on request.

15.3.2. The Grant Recipient undertakes, that for a period of 30 Days prior to the Termination Date, or such reasonably longer or shorter period as the SHRA may in its discretion determine, it shall co-operate fully with all service providers, including the SHRA, who may be rendering services after the Termination Date, and in this regard do all things reasonably necessary in order to ensure appropriate knowledge and skills transfer so that the Project can continue uninterrupted after the Termination Date.

15.4. Claims against Third Parties

15.4.1. The Grant Recipient hereby grants to the SHRA a step-in right to take cession of any claim which the Grant Recipient may have against a third party directly or indirectly in respect of the utilisation of the Consolidated Capital Grant during the subsistence of this Agreement.

15.4.2. Should the SHRA wish to exercise its rights in terms of 15.4.1 above, it shall notify the Grant Recipient in writing, indicating its intention to do so. Such notice shall state the amount of the claim and the name of the third party. On receipt of such valid notice, the Grant Recipient shall be required to cede its right, title and interest in and to the claim referred to in the notice, and the SHRA shall be entitled to enforce such claim without further reference to the Grant Recipient.

16. CONFLICT IN INTERPRETATION

16.1. This Agreement shall be subject to all Applicable Legislation, as all of the foregoing may be amended from time to time during this Agreement ("Laws").

16.2. In the event of any conflict between any of the provisions of any of the Laws and this Agreement, save where not permissible in law, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail, unless the SHRA directs that this Agreement shall be deemed to be amended to give effect to the Laws. In such event the SHRA shall notify the Grant Recipient, of its direction in this regard.

17. CONFIDENTIALITY

17.1. Each Party shall at all times keep in confidence the Confidential Information of the other Party which it may acquire for the purposes of or in connection with this Agreement (whether prior to or after the Effective Date), and shall not use or permit the use of such Confidential Information, and each Party shall procure that its employees, subcontractors, agents or representatives ("staff") shall not use the Confidential Information, for any other purpose, and shall not disclose such Confidential Information to any third party.

17.2. Notwithstanding clause 17.1, a Party may disclose the Confidential Information of the other Party to such Party's staff and service providers to the extent that such staff and service providers needs to know the Confidential Information and shall ensure that such staff are aware of and comply with, the confidentiality obligations contained in this clause 17.

17.3. Each Party shall take all such steps as may be reasonably necessary to prevent the Confidential Information of the other Party from falling into the hands of an unauthorised third party.

17.4. The Grant Recipient shall not make any comments to the media relating to this Agreement and any related matter nor shall it respond to any queries from the media without first consulting with the SHRA.

21. GENERAL

21.1. Remedies

- 21.1.1. No remedy conferred by this Agreement is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy which is otherwise available at law, by statute or otherwise. Each remedy shall be cumulative and in addition to every other remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law, by statute or otherwise. The election of any one or more remedy by any of the Parties shall not constitute a waiver by such Party of the right to pursue any other remedy.

21.2. Entire Contract

21.2.1. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties in regard to its subject matter. None of the Parties shall have any claim or right of action arising from any undertaking, representation, warranty or provision not included in this Agreement.

21.3. Severance

21.3.1. If any provision of this Agreement, which is not material to its efficacy as a whole, is rendered void, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any law, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby, and the parties shall endeavour to negotiate and amend the applicable provision(s) to be correct and enforceable and record such in an addendum to this Agreement.

21.4. No Stipulation for the Benefit of a Third Person

21.4.1. Save as is expressly provided for in this Agreement, no provision of this Agreement constitutes a stipulation for the benefit of a third person which, if accepted by the person, would bind any Party in favour of that person.

21.5. No Agency

21.5.1. Unless expressly provided otherwise in this Agreement: -

21.5.1.1. No provision of this Agreement shall be construed as constituting an agency, partnership, or joint venture between the Parties, and no Party shall have any express or implied authority to bind the other Party or in any way or to represent the other Party, save as provided in this Agreement;

21.5.1.2. The Grant Recipient operates as an independent entity and not as an employee or agent of the SHRA and do not have the authority to bind the SHRA contractually to any other party; and

21.5.1.3. The SHRA operates as an independent entity and not as an employee or agent of the Grant Recipient and does not have the authority to bind the Grant Recipient contractually to any other party;

21.5.1.4. The SHRA shall not be liable to pay any retrenchment or severance benefits to any of the employees of the Grant Recipient on dismissal or on termination of this Agreement or otherwise and the Grant Recipient hereby indemnify the SHRA against any claims which may arise in this regard.

21.6. Variation, Cancellation and Waiver

21.6.1. No contract varying, adding to, deleting from or cancelling this Agreement, and no waiver of any right under this Agreement, shall be effective unless reduced to writing and signed by or on behalf of the Parties, save as set out elsewhere in this Agreement.

21.7. Indulgences

21.7.1. The grant of any indulgence, extension of time or relaxation of any provision by a Party under this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of any right by the grantor or prevent or adversely affect the exercise by the grantor of any existing or future right of the grantor.

21.8. Cession and Delegation

21.8.1. The Grant Recipient and Developer may not cede all or any of its rights or delegate all or any of its obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the SHRA.

21.9. Assignment

21.9.1. Save as expressly provided otherwise in this Agreement, neither Party shall cede, assign, delegate or transfer its rights and/or obligations in terms of this Agreement, or any part thereof, to any third party or Entity (unless otherwise provided for in this Agreement) without the prior written consent of the SHRA.

21.10. Applicable Law

21.10.1. This Agreement is to be governed, interpreted and implemented in accordance with the laws of the Republic of South Africa.

21.11. Jurisdiction of South African Courts

21.11.1. The Parties consent to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the High Court of South Africa, for any proceedings arising out of or in connection with this Agreement

21.12. Costs

21.12.1. Each Party shall bear that Party's own legal costs and disbursements of and incidental to the negotiation, preparation, settling, signing and implementation of this Agreement.

21.12.2. Any costs, including all legal costs on an attorney and own client basis and VAT, incurred by a Party arising out of or in connection with a breach by another Party shall be borne by the Party in breach.

21.13. Independent Advice

21.13.1. Each of the Parties hereby respectively agrees and acknowledges that: -

21.13.1.1. It has been free to secure independent legal advice as to the nature and effect of each provision of this Agreement and that it has either taken such independent legal advice or has dispensed with the necessity of doing so; and 21.13.1.2. Each provision of this Agreement (and each provision of the Annexes) is fair and reasonable in all the circumstances and is part of the overall intention of the Parties in connection with this Agreement.

21.14. Good Faith

21.14.1. The Parties shall, at all times, act in good faith towards each other and shall not bring the other Party into disrepute.

21.15. Co-operation

21.15.1. The Parties shall co-operate with each other and shall each execute and deliver to the other Party such other instruments and documents and take such other actions as may be reasonably requested from time to time in order to carry out, evidence and confirm their rights and the intended purpose of this Agreement.

21.15.2. Each of the Parties undertakes at all times to do all such things, perform all such acts and take all such steps, and to procure the doing of all such things, within its power and control, as may be open to it and necessary for and incidental to the putting into effect or maintenance of the terms, conditions and import of this Agreement.

21.15.3. The Parties agree to provide to one another all information reasonably requested by the other, needed to assist the other in the exercise of their respective rights and performance of their obligations under this Agreement and further agree that all such information shall be subject to the confidentiality provisions of clause 17 of this Agreement.

21.16. Survival of Rights, Duties and Obligations

21.16.1. Termination of this Agreement for any cause shall not release any Party from any liability which the time of termination has already accrued to the other Party or which thereafter may accrue in respect of any act or omission prior to such termination.

21.17. Signature in Counterparts

21.17.1. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and which together shall constitute one and the same Agreement.
